

Base System Currency

Base System Currency is used by XTRF™ as default currency for cost and price calculations. If any Invoice or Payment is needed to be created using another currency, its value is converted from Base System Currency upon the latest Exchange Rate.